come to Versailles, return to Weimar with the terms and then return again to Versailles.

First Sessions at Hotel.

When the Germans come to Versailles the initial sessions will be held at a hotel. The only meeting at the Trianon palace will be when the Germans are ready to sign.

There is renewed talk that the United States may become the mandatory power for Constantinople and Armenia. Americans in Paris, however, are not sure that the inclusion of Armenia would meet with approval at home, but some are inclined to believe that the taking over of Constantinople would be an honor, and would again give America an opportunity to show the world her wonderful efficiency.

Acting as mandator for Constantinople would involve virtually no expense to the United States. No armed forces would be required. It is known that Great Britain would like the United States to take over Constantinople for protective purposes, and France probably holds the same view. The question of Greece is not serious, as it is considered necessary that the mandate should go to a first-class power.

DRAINAGE OF CANAL O. K.'D BY MD. LABOR

The plan to appoint a committee to report on the feasibility of draining the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, converting its bed into a double track railroad, was approved at a meeting of the Maryland State Federation of Labor, in Cumberland, Md., today.

The proposal was submitted by Henry Noida, a member of Upholsterers' Union, No. 68, of Washington.

Besides reporting on the drainage plan, the committee will also be empowered to take the matter up with Secretary Baker and other Government officials.

John H. Ferguson, of Baltimore, today declined the re-nomination for president of the federation. Frank J. Drum, president of District No. 16, United Mine Workers, and Joseph E. Wontaseth were nominated in his place.

D. A. R. MAY SPLIT ON REPRESENTATION

the world, was presented, by Mrs. Lilly Tyson Elliott, regent of Maryland. It was referred to the committee on resolutions.

To Honor Dead Heroes.

The resolution offered by the New York State regent urging that all chapters submit the names of their dead heroes, to be preserved in the archives of the D. A. R., was adopted. Another resolution calling upon Congress to pass the bill which provides that protection be given the valuable historic documents now threatened by destruction through the lack of proper facilities in the State, War and Navy building, where they are kept, be passed without delay.

The congress, voting on a resolution, indorsed the work of Secretary of the Interior Lane for Americanization and the eradication of illiteracy. Secretary Lane's work to provide returning soldiers with farms and homes was also indorsed.

No Report on Bolshevism.

Miss Hilda Fletcher, of the District of Columbia, wanted to know of the president general what had become of the resolution offered by Miss Janet Richards, asking that the D. A. R. go on record as condemning Bolshevism in this country. Mrs. Guernsey said that it had not yet been reported out of committee.

Mrs. Alexander Fox, of Mississippi, offered a resolution providing for the education of the children of soldiers who served in France. A whirlwind canvass for subscriptions to the Daughters of the American Revolution Magazine, of which Miss Natalie Sumner Lincoln, of the District of Columbia, is the editor, was launched among the delegates yesterday afternoon. A contest among the members developed when two teams, the blue and the red, invaded the hall and took up subscriptions. As the red team obtained one, a red electric lamp placed conspicuously flashed, and a similar light, tinted blue, showed whenever the blue team scored. The contest was won by the blue team.

Ovation Given Mrs. Minor.

An ovation was given Mrs. George Maynard Minor, vice president general, and thus far the only announced candidate for president general, when she made her report on the D. A. R. Magazine. Miss Lincoln, as the editor of the publication, also made a report. Nominations for the seven vacancies in the office of vice president general were Miss Janet Richards, of the District of Columbia, by Miss Hilda Fletcher; Mrs. Frank W. Bahman, of Illinois, by Mrs. John H. Hanley; Mrs. Frank F. Dow, of New York, by Mrs. Charles S. Whitman, wife of the former governor of New York; Mrs. John P. Hume, of Wisconsin, by Mrs. Marjorie; Miss Louise Coburn, of Maine, by Mrs. Hazlette; Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson, of Oregon, by Mrs. Jones; Mrs. William D. Sherrod, of New Jersey, by Mrs. Gedney; Mrs. James L. Smith, of Texas, by Mrs. Lane; Miss Mary B. Temple, of Tennessee, by Mrs. Bryan; Mrs. William Henry Watt, of Michigan, by Mrs. Baitwood.

The only nominee for historian-general was Mrs. Edward P. Moody, of Delaware.

Miss Janet Richards offered a resolution urging the delegates to work for the promotion of Americanism in their home States. The resolution was referred to a committee.

YOUNG BUSINESS MEN OF THE TIMES NO. 31

WILLIAM GRUVER.

Who serves The Washington Times daily to his customers in the territory from Eighth to Seventeenth streets and between E and C streets southeast.

He has gained ten pounds in weight, a half-inch in height, a $50 Liberty bond, and a $5 War Savings stamp in six months.

"He" is Billie Gruver, fourteen years old, Thirteenth street southeast. During the six months in question, Billie has been one of the young business men of the Times. He attributes most of his gain in weight, height, and money to that fact.

"It's great," declares Billie. "I am out of doors delivering my papers and collecting for them a good share of the time, after school and I get lots of good, wholesome exercise. It's the best thing in the world."

Billie is in the eighth grade of the Bryan School and has eighty-eight papers on his own route in the southeast section of the city.

Doctors Amazed at Power of Phosphorated Malt to Bring Strength and Steady Nerves to Pale, Weak, Nervous Women

And Men, Says Dr. Reid Who Prescribes It to Nourish and Strengthen the Nerves, Clear the Brain and Bring Back the Joy of Life to Tired, Anemic, Rattled People.

BOSTON, MASS.—Both my friends of the profession and myself—doctors all—have been amazed at the transformation wrought by a few days' use of phosphorated malt.

Not long ago a woman came to me in a state of physical and nervous exhaustion. She was fretful, fault-finding and nervous and complained of feeling tired all the time. She had been gravely mis-treated by her household and by all her friends—according to her story. To her the world was a dreary place and life itself was a burden and a bore. I had treated her before and knew her family and social life. I had seen her for her own distorted imagination. I told her to eat less, and take two five-grain tablets of phosphorated malt after each meal, and to report to me at the end of a week. In about two weeks she came back, rosy-cheeked, happy and carefree, a picture of exultant health—the kind that knows no nerves and forgets to be unhappy.

I have seen phosphorated malt do endurance and mental activity in less than two weeks' time after all else had failed, even the best physician's advice. It brings roses to the cheeks of pale, tired, nervous, over-worked women and the crimson blood of health and a happy smile to the faces of children recovering from long spells of sickness. Physicians all know that phosphorus above all things nourishes the brain and nerves and that without it good health is impossible. Nerves and brain need like the body needs food. It strengthens and vitalizes every nerve and organ of the human body. Why, with it even plants will not grow and

MAUNDY THURSDAY CELEBRATED TODAY

Today is Maundy Thursday.

Scottish Rite Masons here will celebrate Maundy Thursday this evening. Tonight the seven symbolic lights of the chapter of Rose Croix are extinguished. They will remain dark until Easter Sunday, when they will be relighted and the work of the new year will begin. A committee of Scottish Rite Masons will visit all sick members of the chapter and leave a basket of food in commemoration of the day.

The origin of the name "Maundy" is rather obscure. It originally referred to the Latin "Mandatum," the day of the mandate: "A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; to the old Latin 'mand' (Anglo-Saxon, 'maund') a hand basket, from which food was distributed to the poor on the day before Good Friday; and to the phrase 'et manducate,' take and eat. The old ceremony of distributing food to the poor is still retained by the Masons, and will be observed today.

Maundy Thursday commemorates the Last Supper; it falls on the same date as the Jewish Passover, and the feast of the Young Lamb of the Brahmins of India.

The program of the Evangelist Chapter, Knights of the Rose Croix, No. 1, for the celebration of the day begins at the Cathedral of the Rite, Third and E streets northwest, at 7:30 o'clock this evening, with the formal opening and a "mystic banquet." Following the banquet will come the ceremony of extinguishing the lights. The ceremony of relighting the lights will be observed at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

SHOOT BEFORE TALKING.

CHICAGO, April 17.—Frank Kendziora imitated the Western sheriff by shooting first and talking afterward, when he met two men on a dark street. He will be allowed to do his talking in court.

SOVIET PAPER IN HANDS OF OFFICIALS

Although copies have been mailed to the department, a radical pamphlet bearing the title "The Anarchist Soviet Bulletin" had not been "officially" called to the attention of the Department of Justice today. Other Government agencies also are in possession of copies.

The bulletin, which claims a circulation of 600,000 for the first edition, which first appeared here yesterday, is addressed "To the workers, farmers, soldiers and sailors."

One of the purposes of the "Anarchist Soviet," a branch of which the bulletin claims has been established in Washington, is "seizure of all industries and land by the American Anarchist Federation of Commune Societies."

A high official of the Department of Justice declared today that the pamphlet itself almost proved it to be other than a Soviet or Bolshevik publication. It is just as plain that it is not an anarchist document.

Enemy of Bolshevism.

The anarchist is the bitterest enemy of the Bolshevik in Russia, this official pointed out. The anarchist is directly opposed to any form of government. Likewise the Bolshevik is for the Soviet.

An anarchist soviet cannot exist, the Government official declared. This official advanced this theory: that the bulletin may be fathered by a group of Americans who are attempting through this method to hold up Bolshevism to ridicule. The bulletin, he said, would be circulated as a counter irritant to the sweep of Bolshevism.

The bulletin claims that branches have been established in New York, San Francisco, Pittsburgh, and South Dakota.

Arrest Is Reported.

One arrest in connection with circulation of the bulletins is reported. A man giving his name as Robert Parsons, of Montreal, Canada, was arrested yesterday in Paterson, N. J. He had several hundred copies of the bulletin in his possession. It is said that he has been distributing the bulletin by mail, as by hand, leaving copies on doorsteps.

The Postoffice Department is waiting reports as to whether copies of the bulletin have been sent through the mails.

ADVENTISTS OPEN BIG COUNCIL HERE

The opening meeting of the big Seventh Day Adventist Council, a public meeting of the educational department of the general council, was held last night at Columbia Hall, Washington Missionary College, Takoma Park.

About 400 persons attended the meeting, more than 200 being visitors.

PREMIER BREAKS WITH NORTHCLIFFE

LONDON, April 17.—"Never in British parliamentary history has there been a more terrible castigation than Premier Lloyd George's attack on Lord Northcliffe during his passionate speech in Commons yesterday," said the Daily News today.

"The premier held to be a delusion Lord Northcliffe's belief in his own omniscience, and flung in his face his manifold inconsistencies. It was evident from the speech that the great 'twin brethren' have finally broken. The cleft is now an inseparable gulf, but both politics and journalism will gain from the break-up of the inglorious association."

"Apologia" is the heading which the Times (owned by Lord Northcliffe) placed above the speech. The Times said, in part, in its editorial comment: "Of what sort will be the feelings of Premier Lloyd George's colleagues in Paris when they read the half-truth, the palliation and false analogies for cheap rhetorical effect?"

"The record of the Times during the pre-war crisis will bear closer examination than that of the premier."
